"Sunshine With Rainy Clouds"

Life is short, time flies. That new place I've made my home, has bluer skies, wings when I fly. I get to be me, no disguise, and like a diamond in the rough, I will always shine. I would climb to the top, then I would drop, then back to the top again... Ups and downs, smiles and frowns. A rollercoaster ride, merry-go-round. At peace I rest, peace I've found. The legacy I've left, will forever be in your hearts, safe and sound. Beautiful soul, too young to die old, too hot and too cold. I'm your rock, I'm your gold. All I ask is please don't bend, please don't fold. Be strong...

Obituary

Doris Lynette Morrison was born on January 4, 1965 in Moore County, North Carolina to the late Rose and Robert Morrison.

She arrived in Rochester, New York at an early age where she attended East High School. She became a Certified Nursing Assistant, and worked at various nursing homes, including the Episcopal Church Home. Later on, she worked in retail until her health declined. She was a member of OffSpring Spiritual Church on Genesee Street.

Doris had a giving spirit, she would give you the shirt off her back. She enjoyed singing, cooking, and made sure everyone was fed, then she would eat last, then clean up after. She was the life of the party, enjoyed hosting game nights, so that she could do the things she loved; play cards, and listen to her favorite music while surrounded by family and friends. On Sundays when her Dallas Cowboys played, junk talk would fill up the room, she was also a fan of the Tar Heels, and loved Kobe Bryant too. A true fashionista, she was always seen sporting a fresh pair of lashes, with a colorful hairdo. For her it was FOE, Family Ova Everything, and being surrounded by her grandchildren brought her so much joy, she loved them more than anything.

On March 4, 2024, Doris was called to eternal rest. She is preceded in death by her husband Kenneth Hill, parents Rose and Robert Morrison, sister Ann "Pearl" Morrison, and brothers Willie James Morrison, and Robert "Sambo" Ingram. She is survived by her sons, Terrence(Natalie) Morrison, Kenneth Vickers, daughters, Diamond(Curtis) Sullivan, Laqreshia Hill, and daughter-in-love, Natalie Thompson. Two sisters, Rosa(Robert) Morrison, Cheryl Morrison, and one brother, Marvin Morrison. 14 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
