The family gratefully acknowledges each act of kindness and all expressions of sympathy extended to them during this hour of bereavement.

Tu propio ángel de la guarda por Kelly Roper

*La pérdida de un padre
Es una carga pesada de llevar.
Es una fuente de fuerza tranquila.
Eso se echa tanto de menos cuando él no
está.*

*Consuélate que está en el cielo,
Y mirándote.
Estará allí durante los próximos años,
Cuidándote y guiándote.*

*El es tu propio ángel guardián,
Y él estará contigo hasta el final,
Cuando te encuentres de nuevo en el Cielo,
Y tu corazón roto finalmente se reparará.*

Life Reflections

Miguel Angel Vazquez

Age 76, best known as “Guego” to friends and family, earned his wings on March 31, 2022. He was born in Maunabo, Puerto Rico to Eugenio Vazquez and Ines Boyriet. Miguel is predeceased by his son Jorge Marciano. He is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Martha Marciano; his children: Gloria Melendez, Joseph Marciano, Betty Baez, and Nick Marciano; and his many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was also a father figure to many other nieces and nephews. He was a devoted brother to Christina Vazquez, Angel Vazquez, Carlos Vazquez, Ramira Vazquez, Julio Vazquez, Isabel Vazquez, Raul Vazquez, Ernesto Vazquez, Nydia (Vazquez) Colon, and Nelida Vazquez.

Guego was a survivor and a PROVIDER. Loyal, respectful, selfless, strong, corageous, and resourceful were all qualities he possessed. He was a master chef, his cooking adored by all. His favorite dish to pass was green bananas and gizzards. He spent his time on this earth being the “good time” – playing dominos at every family function, shooting pool, and dancing his heart out to his beloved salsa music.

He was so proud of each family member’s accomplishments and never hesitated supporting them to reach their goals. He ensured everyone had exactly what they needed, even if it took his last dollar!

Dear Guego, please know, your memory will live forever through the stories we tell. Forever in our hearts...
