Her Story

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Isaiah 40:31

Sunrise ...

Ruby Lee Chandler was born on May 7, 1940 in Fountain Inn, South Carolina to the late Kapus and Maggie Dee McMahan, who preceded her in death.

A Life Well Spent ...

She attended Rock Hill Elementary School and Bryson High School. She later married Joseph Chandler and to that union John Willie and Margaret were born. She met James Burts Sr. and to that relationship Henry Lee was born.

She did domestic work for many years. She was quite the entrepreneur: known for baking cakes and pies, canning jellies, jams, relish, chow chow to name a few. Everyone felt she was one of the world's greatest cooks. She also enjoyed fishing and gardening. She loved attending her church New Journey of Hope Christian Faith Church.

Those who Remain ...

She leaves to cherish loving memories: one son, Henry Lee Chandler (Fonda), Margaret Izzard. Her special companion Ezra Bell and his family. Sisters, Azalee Chandler (Gene McWilliams), Jessie McMahan (Leroy Johnson), Sarah Evans (Amos), Grandchildren: Corey, James, Kevin, Maddison, Alex, Brandon. Step-children: June Burts, Georgia Burts. A host of great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Sunset ...

Ruby Lee Chandler entered eternal rest on Friday, March 24, 2023 at the home. Preceded her in death were her siblings Janie Norris, Daisy McMahan, Jimmy McMahan, John Robert McMahan and her son John Willie McMahan.
